Ja'Don Johnson, a New Orleans native with roots in Riverdale, is the CEO of LUXE Financial Consultancy, a transformation from her corporate days. With over 14 years in a Fortune 500 company, she brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to her company.

A graduate of Albany State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting and an MBA in International Business from the University of Southern Mississippi, Ja'Don's journey is marked by achievements. Serving as Miss Freshman and 2nd attendant to Miss Albany State University, she leveraged her platform for Health and Wellness, organizing impactful blood drives on campus with the American Red Cross.

Now on a mission to empower small businesses, Ja'Don, a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), guides them in navigating finances, scaling, and preparing for tax season. Featured in esteemed publications like VoyageATL and Canvas Rebel, she shares her unique perspective on "writing off your lifestyle" as a financial influencer.

Known for her expertise, Ja'Don has graced many speaking engagements, furthering her mission to empower others. Beyond her corporate prowess, she welcomed her son into the world in February 2024. She is an avid cook, devoted dog mom to Jazz, fitness enthusiast, live concert aficionado, and globe-trotter with Iceland as a favorite destination. Her impact is embedded in a unique legacy, creating an enduring imprint on the world. Ja'Don is a constant presence, motivating others to unlock the doors to a stable and prosperous economic future.
